Arlington said he had been forced out of the sport by Joe Vendig, a man who "lays" rather than plays the horses. Arlington and Vendig had a personal dispute over a wager at the summer meet-ing at Empire City, and since then Vendig has bid up every winner that earried the Arlington colors.

These bids have cost Arlington several thousand dollars. The racegoers and the stewards of the Jockey Club do tot approve of Vendis's methods, but there is no way to stop him, for the rules of the Jockey Club distinctly state that any person may hid up the winner of a Corporal From Camp Meade Defeats C. H. Maxwell and Maurice Risley.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 18.—
Corporal George Hoffner won both his matches in the autumn goif tournament at the Country Club of Atlantic City to-day. The solder, who is now stationed at Camp Meade, had a hard time taking the measure of C. H. Maxwell, one of the best of the Trenton golfers. Maxwell, who was never up, got the match level at the sixteenth, only to lose the next. To the eighteenth Maxwell got bunkered, but even so halved the hole, which left him one down. Hoffner made the round in $1.

PENN SCHEDULE SHATTERED. But Red and Blue Team Intends to Extend Season. Special Despatch to Tun Sun. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—The University of Pennsylvania football team had mapped out quite an ambitious football schedule this year but it was very soon shot to pieces. First the S. A. T. C. rules and regulations made necessary some alterations, and then old "Flu" put up the bars just when the Red and Blue expected to get going. The game to-morrow with Swarth-more has been called off, but Penn exects to meet the Little Quakers some time next month. Penn anticipates ex-tending the football season beyond the usual time for closing in order to play some games that are now being arranged with service teams. WILLIAMS TO PLAY UNION.

HOFFNER SCORES ON HIGH LIGHTS AND SHADOWS FAYORITES WIN IN IN ALL SPHERES OF SPORT

FTER two rebuffs because of influenza and other complications the Eastern collegiate football season will make another attempt to get under way this afternoon. With the "flu" under control and Student Army Training Corps affairs fully stabilized there is every prospect of action. While the programme is not very lengthy there are several games of more than passing interest, especially in a season such as this. The game nearest home will be that between Rutgers and the Pelham Bay Naval Training Station at New Brunswick. Foster Sanford's eleven was scheduled to meet Lehigh at South Bethlehem to-day, but the quarantine still is in force in that section of Pennsylvania.

still is in force in that section of Pennsylvania.

Lehigh's defeat of the League Island Marines last week gave promise of an interesting joust with Rutgers, but the substitute is likely to be even more engrossing than the original. Pelham Bay hasn't been saying much, but it has been working hard under Frank Bergin, the old Princeton quarterback, and may be depended on to give a good account of itself. Pelham really does not hope to win against Sanford's formidable combination, which looms up as the strongest varsity in all the country. The gates will be open to the public, and New Brunswick is not so far away that you cannot

The Syracuse varsity will tackle Charley Brickley's Army Transport team from Hoboken. The old Harvard kicking phenomenon will play quarterback and his brother George, who created such a fuss in the college world when Trinity played him three years ago, will be at fullback. We saw the Brickley combination work at South Field on Thursday and it be emphasized that it is a husky outfit, capable of handling itself in any kind of company

Wishington and Jefferson will play its second game against Camp Sherman, while Penn State will get going against Bucknell, which is said to have an average eleven. Pittsburg will meet the Detroit Naval Station if the quarantine is lifted. One of those old fashioned out and out college engagements will be staged at Williamstown, where Williams will enter-tain Union. At Yale, Columbia, New York University, Fordham and other colleges there will be intercompany and interbattalion games. There will be several purely service games, the chief of which will bring together the Newport Naval Station and the New London Submarines.

Bill Roper Tackles a Big Proposition.

Bill Roper, the old Princeton football player and coach, has been ap pointed secretary of the general sports committee which is pushing the national sport week campaign-November 11 through 18-on behalf of the United War Charities Fund. He has tackled the job just as he used to tackle on the gridiron and it's a safe bet that he will make a big go of it. Roper cleared up several doubtful points about the drive yesterday at the Yale Club, where he makes his headquarters. He said:
"We endeavored to withhold publication of any news concerning our plans until after the Liberty Loan campaign. We did not wish to detract on from the loan in the slightest degree and, besides, our arrangements had not developed to the point where we were ready to give out a concrete statement on our aims and methods. A preliminary article, howhave already given an outline of what the general programme is. There still appears to be a little confusion. Our athletic and sporting campaign is not to raise $170,500,000. That sum is the goal of the entire campaign Various sports will be employed merely to raise funds in conjunction with

"It has been ascertained that considerable opposition to sports at this time is based on the allegation that it served no definite war purpose other than to provide outdoor recreation for those participating. I have always believed this to be a highly important factor in the war, because men who are physically fit to enter battle are automatically giving splendid service to their country. By enveloping sports in a distinctly patriotic atmosphere it is agreed that there could certainly be no objection to their continuance, even on the part of those who have been most radically opposed. If a football game, for instance, may be the means of providing soldiers comforts they would not otherwise enjoy it would be stretching an ethical point to the utmost limit to say that it was not proper for the game to be played in war time.

"Please correct the impression that we would attempt to raise $170,-500,000 through the medium of sports. In fact it is impossible for us to fix a financial objective at the present time, though as efforts are stimulated through the country we will obtain a definite idea of how much they will

Fitzgerald Admirably Fitted for General Steward at Local Tracks.

Chris Fitzgerald is running the race meeting at Empire City in so business like a manner that his appointment as general steward for all metroplacing of so much power and responsibility in the hands of one man, especially in such an endeavor as racing, would appear to be a dangerous experiment. However, those who know Mr. Fitzgerald know that there is no more honest man in the game and that he is the one man connected with racing who could be intrusted with such wide powers.

There is no gainsaying the fact that the Metropolitan tracks need just such a general steward as is proposed. We need a man who knows the game from every angle and can take the viewpoint of the man in the Coleman, one of the scratch men, by Third Sixteen.

Broadbill Defies Efforts of Four Men. | and stupidly destroyed. It is of such a character that one international authority Breadbill Defies Efforts of Four Men.

AVALON, Cal., Oct. 18.—Jack Kendall hooked a breadbill swordfish which sulked after taking out 600 feet of line.

Unable, after a time, to move the fish, he passed the rod over to his father, B. O. Kendall, who was in the boat with him. Kendall, Sr., tried to raise the fish, finally giving it up, turning the rod over to his brother. The brother, unable to move the fish either, passed the rod over to Capt. Sid Boerstier, who likewise was unable to make any impression on the broadbill.

Finally, to save the rod and tackle, Capt. Boerstier pulled until he broke the line. From the strike to the breaking of the line the struggle lasted two hours and forty minutes.

Bay Plebius Prospects Bright. New York, Oct. 17.

Bay Fishing Prospects Bright. Prospects for bay fishing are good for Sunday. Fred Boegel of Canarsie says that his guides are taking nood catches of Sounders and that the fish are running a fair size. FIDDLERS, China Books from Virginia.

founders and that the founder fishing is ge.

Both Gildersleeve and Lampe of Freeport Point said that the flounder fishing is good there. Catches during the week ran over a hundred to the boat. Some of these fish weighed as much as a pound and half each, The fishing stations at this place have Ling. Hake and Whiting Offshore. Ling are here. Many were taken on the Sheepshead Bay boats on Thursday. The catches ran in some instances to more than thirty. The fish are still offshore, but are apirto be inshore any day onw. A number of big hake and some whiting were also caught. Fish were taken on all pf the boats that went out, and the chances are that big messes will be taken on Sunday as other schools continue to arrive.

Connecticut's Indefensible Deer Law.

I have read your editorial 'The Big Game Season' in to-day's SUN with appreciation of your thoughtful attention to the subject discussed. It is rather to be regretted, however, that, in recounting the progress made in good game legislation you did not cite Connecticut as the State that boasts the very worst and most indefensible deer law existing in this coun-
